Properties within this complex rarely come onto the market and upon inspection it will be clear why. Sharing a level with only two other properties you are privy to a sense of privacy that is unknown elsewhere in the CBD.

The large solid timber door grants entrance to this property where you will be immediately struck by the proportions of this exquisite apartment. The 4.1 metre high ceilings create an open air feel to this apartment and a sense of space that make this property much more than a Pied-?-terre.
