The entry to this apartment is granted through the private hallway which adds a sense of privacy foreign to many CBD apartments as well as separate laundry and extra storage space. The vast open plan living and kitchen area is flooded with natural light courtesy of the full length windows allowing you to relax in style and take in the amazing views this property has to offer. The sleek and stylish kitchen features only the finest in stainless steel appliances, glass splash back and plenty of storage space. This is the perfect set up for any master chef, though I doubt you will want to cook when you have some of Melbourne's best cuisine at your doorstep.

The large living area opens right up to allow a beautiful breeze of fresh air through and features a truly amazing view of the city skyline. By night there is no other place you
